Disney's The Little Mermaid Cast List

Thank you all for auditioning for this year's production. As developing actors, we encourage you all to please remember that the decisions we make at auditions is just as much a decision about the show's needs as it is an assessment of your talent. And what an amazingly talented group of actors we have! The support and love you had in the room on Thursday was catching! Let's keep that through our entire process.

Out of respect for the incredibly hard work the panel did this past week, please note that the decisions below are final. There will be time next week for you to set appointments with Mr. Fazzini, Mrs. Pieper, and Mrs. Scott to discuss any questions you might have. Those conversations will be done in person.
