EMPOWERING STUDENTS TO MAKE A POSITIVE DIFFERENCE

In today's world, being connected socially—and empathetically—to other people is as important as securing and maintaining high grades. Our students carry this ideal with them beyond our walls, into adulthood and their communities. Through hands-on programs like Engineering and Empathy, students grow in the lessons of sharing, being helpful, solving problems and understanding the feelings of others by immersing themselves with a local nonprofit. Students graduate more successful and better prepared to cultivate loving families and stronger communities. For additional information about our robotics program, visit ndpma.org.

“During each new project, (my teacher) never expected anything less than my best, but he has also taught me not to expect anything less than the best from myself.”— ABIGAIL

“My four years at Notre Dame bolstered my spirituality, equipped me with academic tools for the future, and instilled religious and personal values that I carry with me to this day. My academic transition to U of M was seamless, owing to the school’s commitment to forming well-rounded students. They’re not joking about the ‘P’ in ‘NDP!’”

DAVID MIKKOLA: WALTON CHARTER ACADEMY '15; NDP '19; MICHIGAN '23

Notre Dame is a co-educational school run by the Marist Fathers and Brothers, and is welcoming to students and families of all faiths. We are an authorized International Baccalaureate World School, providing the Middle Years Programme (MYP) to freshmen and sophomores, and offering the prestigious Diploma Programme (DP) to juniors and seniors.

As a student at Notre Dame you'll start your school day at 7:45 a.m., and finish at 2:45 p.m. You'll carry eight courses, but sit for four 80-minutes classes per day in a rotating schedule. Each day you'll have Community Time, giving you 35 minutes to meet with clubs, catch up on schoolwork, collaborate with peers, or visit with a teacher/advisor in a small-group setting.

At Notre Dame you will be given opportunities to challenge yourself in multiple ways. Ultimately these opportunities will prepare you to follow Christ, serve others and seek wisdom, the goal for every Notre Dame graduate.
